

Ordinance no. 155.

Ord 155
Rep 15-06
665

An Ordinance to tax, license and regulate public washhouses and Laundries, and to define what shall constitute the same.

The People of the City of Albany do ordain as follows:

Section I. Public laundries and washhouses shall each pay a quarterly license of five dollars. Every house, building or place, which is opened to the public as a washhouse or Laundry, shall constitute a public laundry and washhouse under this ordinance.

Section II. Each and every public laundry or washhouse, within the corporate limits of the City of Albany, together with the premises on which the same is located, shall be kept free from all filth, stow, and waste water, by good and sufficient drains or sewers, and shall be kept in such a condition that no unwholesome or noxious smell shall arise therefrom.

Any person or persons, owning, controlling or being in possession of any public laundry or washhouse, who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, or who shall suffer, permit or allow such house or building or the premises on which the same is located, to become filthy, or shall suffer, permit, or allow any stow, and waste water to accumulate or be therein or thereon, shall suffer, permit, or allow such house or building or the premises on which the same is located to be kept or be in such a condition that any unwholesome or noxious smell shall arise therefrom, shall upon conviction thereof, before the Recorder's Court, be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the City Jail for not less than five days, nor more than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Court, together with all of costs of prosecution. And if any person or person, shall be convicted a second time of any violation of any of the provisions this section, the Court shall adjudge as a punishment therefor, in addition to the punishment hereinbefore authorized to be adjudged, that the license of such person or persons be forfeited and revoked, and that the same be null and of no effect.

Section III. A person or persons, who shall open or carry on any public washhouse or laundry within the City limits, without having first obtained from the Recorder a license therefor, shall, upon conviction thereof before the Recorder's Court, be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the city jail for not less than two days, nor more than twenty-five days, or by both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

Section 26. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its approval by the Mayor.
