RESOLUTION NO. 1958

WHEREAS, the Albany Parking and Safety Commission has met for study and recommends the following,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Mayor and the City Council of the City of Albany, Oregon that the following recommendations be adopted:

- 1) That the two hour parking zone on the south side of Water Avenue between Broadalbin and Ferry Streets be rescinded and that it be re-zoned to all day parking.
- 2) That parking be eliminated on the south side of 13th Avenue between the first and second driveways east of Montgomery Street.
- 3) That crosswalks and school crossing signs be installed at 9th and Waverly Drive for a school crossing across Waverly Drive.
- 4) That the twelve center parking stalls on the city parking lot at 1st and Ellsworth be established as rental parking with a monthly fee of $10.00.
- 5) That duck crossing signs be installed along Salem Avenue adjacent to Waverly Lake between the bridge and Albany Avenue.

DATED this 26th day of April, 1978.

Mayor
