

RESOLUTION NO. 2780

WHEREAS, the ceremonial and social duties of the Mayor as the head of the City government from time to time make it appropriate that the Mayor or the Mayor's designated representative be accompanied by a spouse or guest to community events and activities at which the Mayor is attending in his or her official capacity; and

WHEREAS, there is occasionally some expense incurred in the attendance by a spouse or guest such as the cost of a meal.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that such reasonable expenses incurred by the Mayor or the Mayor's designee in the performance of his or her official duties as the chief-elected official be considered as expenditures necessary in the performance of the duties of the Mayor of the City of Albany.

Dated this 27th day of April 1988.
