INTRODUCTORY.

IN presenting this work to the citizens of Albany and Linn county, the publisher wishes to thank the business men of the city for their hearty co-operation and liberal support of the work. Appreciating their interest, he has spared no pains in making this a first-class Directory.

It is customary in City Directories to give the population of the city. Directory publishers generally take the number of names in the alphabetical directory and use three or three and one-half as a multiplier. Instead of so doing, I have taken the number of people at each house, or a complete census of Albany, and find that our population is 4,628.
